AZ QUOTES

Scripture:

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters." — Colossians 3:23 (NIV)

Devotional:

Tony Dungy's success as an NFL coach is remarkable—not only because he broke barriers and achieved incredible milestones but because he consistently credited God for his abilities, opportunities, and success. Dungy is a man who has used his platform to glorify God and share his faith with others.

After becoming the first Black head coach to win a Super Bowl, Dungy said:

"It's amazing what God can do when you're not worried about who gets the credit."

This powerful statement reflects Tony's belief that his talents and achievements were not about him but about glorifying God. Throughout his career, Tony Dungy demonstrated humility, patience, and perseverance, qualities that he attributes to his relationship with God. He worked hard, but he also trusted God's plan for his life, even when things didn't go according to his own expectations. The Bible reminds us in Colossians 3:23 that everything we do should be done as if we are doing it for the Lord. This means using our God-given talents to the best of our ability, not for our own glory, but for God's. Tony Dungy's life and career exemplify this principle. He didn't strive for personal accolades or recognition; instead, he stayed faithful to God's calling and gave Him the credit every step of the way.

Dungy's story reminds us that we can glorify God through our work, regardless of our role or occupation. Whether on a football field, in a classroom, or at home, we can use our talents to honor Him. And when we do, God can use us for purposes far greater than we could ever imagine.

Reflection:

- Are you using your talents and gifts to glorify God, or are you focused on gaining recognition for yourself?
- How can you trust God to work through you, even when His plans differ from your expectations?
- In what ways can you give God the credit for your successes and opportunities?

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, thank You for the gifts, talents, and opportunities You have given us. Help us to use them for Your glory and not for our own. Teach us to work with humility and faithfulness, trusting that You have a greater purpose for our lives. Just as Tony Dungy gave You the credit for his success, help us always to acknowledge that every good thing comes from You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Final Thought:

Tony Dungy's story reminds us that success isn't about personal glory—it's about honoring God. By trusting Him with our talents and opportunities, we can fulfill His purpose for our lives and make a lasting impact on the world. Remember, God can do amazing things through us when we're not worried about who gets the credit.

Veronica Boyd
