

Wednesday September 4, 2024

CALVARY CONNECT

Up Coming Events

Wednesday, September 4th:

- Girls Volleyball Practice 3pm-4:45
- Soccer Practice-3pm-4:45

Thursday, September 5th:

- Girls Volley ball HOME vs. Highland Christian · 4pm-6pm
- 7th Grade game at 4pm
- 8th Grade game at 5pm

- Soccer HOME vs. Highland Christian · 4pm-5pm

Friday, September 6th:

- No Chapel

Monday, September 9th:

- Girls Volleyball Practice 3pm-4:45
- Soccer Practice-3pm-4:45

Tuesday, September 10th:

- Girls Volleyball HOME vs. St. Paul (Munster)-8th Grade ONLY · 4pm-5pm
- Soccer HOME vs. St. Paul (Munster) · 4pm-5pm

Band Announcements

Thursday, September 5th: Jazz Band Audition help:
7:50am-8:30 am

The band fee is $100 per band FAMILY.
The fee is due Friday, September 27th. 6th-8th Grade.

Pictures of the Week

Prayer Corner

So, I heard this story about a dad who went grocery shopping, and as he was making trip number three from the car to the kitchen, he noticed his two sons just sitting at the table, watching him struggle with all the bags. The dad pauses, looks at them, and thinks, "Really? Can I get just a little help here?" I mean, he did the hard part—shopping, loading up the car, driving home—and they're just sitting there, like they're watching some sort of grocery-carrying Olympics.

Now, if you're a parent, you've probably been there. You know, when you're surrounded by your kids, but maybe you'd appreciate a little less 'surrounding' and a little more 'support.' But this isn't just about our kids—it's about all the people in our lives. Don't get me wrong, it's great to be surrounded by our loved ones. But sometimes, what we really need is some good, old-fashioned support.

There's this verse in Galatians 6:2 that says, "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." It's one thing to say, "I'm here for you," and another to actually show up and help carry the load.

I remember a friend telling me about a time when she was really struggling financially. She poured her heart out to a friend, and the friend prayed with her, which was comforting. But then, just an hour later, that same friend showed up at her door with bags of groceries, filled her fridge, bought school uniforms for her kids, and even paid for their tuition. Now, that's what I call being surrounded with support.

We won't always be the ones in need, but when we're in a position to help, let's be the kind of people who not only surround but also support. Let's recognize the seasons God places us in and ask ourselves: Can we do both?

So next time you see someone carrying all the groceries—literal or metaphorical—don't just sit at the table. Get up and give them a hand.

Thank you,
Veronica Boyd